

The New Mexico Association of Commerce and Industry

Invites you to participate in a breakfast discussion on why the ban on exporting crude oil needs to be lifted.

Making the Case for Lifting the Ban on Crude Oil Exports

Featuring:

New Mexico Association of Commerce and Industry
President, Jason Espinoza

Synergy Operating
Tom Mullins

Agenda
Gerges Scott

Tuesday, August 25th

Check In 8:30 a.m.

Program: 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

(Complimentary hot breakfast will be served)

Crowne Plaza Albuquerque

1901 University Blvd NE

Albuquerque, NM 87102 US

Join the conversation as momentum to lift the ban is building at the federal level with legislation recently advancing in the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives. The event will focus on how lifting the ban on crude oil exports could benefit the U.S. economy and have sweeping implications on foreign policy

Please RSVP to info@nmaci.org

This event is by invitation only. Space is limited, please register today!

Please contact ACI with any questions at 505-842-0644

State and Federal legislative employees should consult with their ethics office or their employer's ethics office, as appropriate, to determine whether there would be any prohibition on their attendance at this event.