Disclaimer

This Presentation includes my opinions only. Caution should be exercised if any part of this is considered to be advice or career direction without professional advise. and is based, inter alia, on forward-looking information and statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ. These statements and this Presentation are based on current expectations, estimates and projections about global economic conditions, the economic conditions of the regions and industries that are major markets for HMH (including subsidiaries and affiliates) lines of business. These expectations, estimates and projections are generally identifiable by statements containing words such as “expects”, “believes”, “estimates” or similar expressions. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expectations include, among others, economic and market conditions in the geographic areas and industries that are or will be major markets for HMH’s businesses, oil prices, market acceptance of new products and services, changes in governmental regulations, interest rates, fluctuations in currency exchange rates and such other factors as may be discussed from time to time in the Presentation. Although HMH believes that its expectations and the Presentation are based upon reasonable assumptions, it can give no assurance that those expectations will be achieved or that the actual results will be as set out in the Presentation. HMH is making no representation or warranty, expressed or implied, as to the accuracy, reliability or completeness of the Presentation, and neither HMH nor any of its directors, officers or employees will have any liability to you or any other persons resulting from your use.

MHWirth consists of many legally independent entities, constituting their own separate identities. HMH is used as the common brand or trade mark for most of these entities.

SELF

WHY LEADERS FAIL

A primary reason why leaders fail is that they are poor self-leaders. They lack the self-awareness, motivation, empathy and accountability to succeed at the executive level. They can also overwork themselves and not take the time to care for themselves properly.

all that counts.

John Wooden

A photograph of two men in dark blue suits standing in front of a wedding altar. The man on the left is looking slightly to the side, while the man on the right is looking directly at the camera. Both have white flowers pinned to their lapels. The background is dimly lit with several lit candles on the altar.
