Allied Member
Application

Allied Membership

WHAT IS AN ALLIED MEMBERSHIP?

Allied Member status is available to North American-based companies or individuals who supply services, informational products, materials or equipment to industry members of the Association or purchase products or services from industry members of the Association. A candidate company must also have the endorsement of two Energy Workforce Directors.

WHAT IS AN INDUSTRY MEMBERSHIP?

Industry Member status is available to North American-based wellsite service and supply companies and manufacturers, with at least 50% of its sales in the drilling, production, refining, and/or pipeline segments of the petroleum industry. Annual dues are based on dollar volume sales to those segments. A candidate company must also have the endorsement of two Energy Workforce Directors.

BECOMING A MEMBER

Joining Energy Workforce as an Allied Member can be done in three easy steps:

1. Confirm your company is eligible for allied membership:
To be eligible for Allied Membership status, a company or individual must derive revenue through the sale of equipment or services to the oilfield service and supply sector.
This membership is $10,000 annually.
2. Find two members of the Energy Workforce Board of Directors and Advisory Board to write a letter of recommendation on your behalf. A list of current board members can be found by visiting our website.
3. Complete and send this application to:
