International Membership

WHAT IS AN INTERNATIONAL MEMBERSHIP?

International Member status is available to individuals or companies based outside of the United States. Non-Members may attend two (2) Energy Workforce International Chapter events before being required to apply for International Membership. The international membership permits a company to serve on the regional district's steering committee, subcommittees and to attend all events in the region as an Energy Workforce Member. International membership will be at a discounted rate, and only confers status within the regional district of which the company was conferred international membership from.

BECOMING A MEMBER

Join Energy Workforce & Technology Council as an International Member in two easy steps:

1. Confirm your company is eligible for international membership:
A Manufacturer, Supply Company, or Service Company located in either Latin America or the Middle East (or other regions with a Council regional district as designated by the Board) is eligible to participate in Energy Workforce as an International Member. This membership is U.S. $4,500 annually.
2. Complete and send this application to:
